Henry Tudor VIII

Am G Em
 Pastime with good company
C G E7 Am
 I love and shall until I die
Am G Em
 Grudge who lust but none deny
C G E7 Am
 So God be pleased thus live will I
F G C
 For my pastance
F G C
 Hunt sing and dance
G Em
 My heart is set
F G C
 All goodly sport
F G C
 For my comfort
E7 Am
 Who shall me let?

Am G Em
 Youth must have some dalliance
C G E7 Am
 Of good or ill some pastance
Am G Em
 Company methinks then best
C G E7 Am
 All thoughts and fancies to digest.
F G C
 For I – dleness
F G C
 Is chief mistress
G Em
 Of vices all
F G C
 Then who can say
F G C
 But mirth and play
E7 Am
 Is best of all

Am G Em
 Company with honesty
C G E7 Am
 Is virtue vices to flee.
Am G Em
 Company is good and ill
C G E7 Am
 But every man has his free will.
F G C
 The best ensue
F G C
 The worst eschew
G Em
 My mind shall be
F G C
 Virtue to use
F G C
 Vice to re – fuse
E7 Am
 Thus shall I use me
