Kavisha Mazzella

Cm   D7   Gm

Gm   Cm
Before we were born, song was there
     D7   Gm   D7
She pulled us from the womb for us she cared
     Gm   Cm
And whispered in our ears life's mystery
          D7   Gm   Cm D7
And when we die she surely will be there

Gm   Cm
Song says "Oh please use me, you're my voice,
                              you're my hands
D7   Gm D7
Fashion me into a melody
     Gm   Cm
That tells the human story, It's misery and glory
          D7   Gm D7
Don't be silent that would be a tragedy!"

          Gm   Cm
Sing for no one sing for everyone
D7   Gm D7
Sing for we are servants of the song
Gm   Cm
SIng for being together, never mind the weather
          D7   Gm D7
Sing for no one sing for everyone!

Gm   Cm
Our instruments the weapons of our choice
D7   Gm   D7
To disarm oppression with our voice
          Gm   Cm
Though we make an orphans choir we set all hearts
                                    on fire
          D7   Gm D7
And angels weep as we do rejoice

          Gm   Cm
Sing for no one sing for everyone
D7   Gm D7
Sing for we are servants of the song
Gm   Cm
SIng for being together, never mind the weather
          D7   Gm D7
Sing for no one sing for everyone!

          Gm   Cm
We cry because there's evil in this world
D7   Gm   D7
Watch the oyster as her art unfurls
Gm   Cm
Why not turn your sorrow into a song tomorrow
          D7   Gm   D7
And let your tears become a string of pearls

          Gm   Cm
Sing for no one sing for everyone
D7   Gm D7
Sing for we are servants of the song
Gm   Cm
SIng for being together, never mind the weather
          D7   Gm D7
Sing for no one sing for everyone!
