

You're The Voice

John Farnham

D C G
We have the chance to turn the pages over
D
We can write what we want to write
C G
We gotta make ends meet before we get much older
G A/G G A/G G
We're all someone's daughter
G A/G G A D
We're all someone's son
G A/G G A/G G
How long - can we look at each other
G A/G G A
Down the barrel of a gun?

D
You're the voice, try and understand it
D
Make a noise and make it clear
C G C
Oh whoa oh oh
D
We're not gonna sit in silence
D
We're not gonna live with fear
C G C
Oh whoa oh oh

D C G
This time we know we all can stand together
D
With the power to be powerful
C G
Believing we can make it better
G A/G G A/G G
We're all someone's daughter
G A/G G A D
We're all someone's son
G A/G G A/G G
How long - can we look at each other
G A/G G A
Down the barrel of a gun?

D
You're the voice, try and understand it
D
Make a noise and make it clear
C G C
Oh whoa oh oh
D
We're not gonna sit in silence
D
We're not gonna live with fear
C G C
Oh whoa oh oh

Bagpipes solo (chorus pattern)

G G F C F
G G F C F
G A/G G A/G G
We're all someone's daughter
G A/G G A D
We're all someone's son
G A/G G A/G G
How long - can we look at each other
G A/G G A
Down the barrel of a gun?

D
You're the voice, try and understand it
D
Make a noise and make it clear
C G C
Oh whoa oh oh
D
We're not gonna sit in silence
D
We're not gonna live with fear
C G C
Oh whoa oh oh

To get the A/G chord, just slide the regular G chord up two frets and leave the bottom string open

